

Business & General Aviation Conference

At the Conference, delegates meet and interact with industry experts and manufacturers who provide updates on the state of the industry, recovery trajectories within the market, and technology advancements. Various networking opportunities throughout the Conference enable delegates to connect with colleagues, and develop valuable relationships with peers, influential decision makers and even competitors.

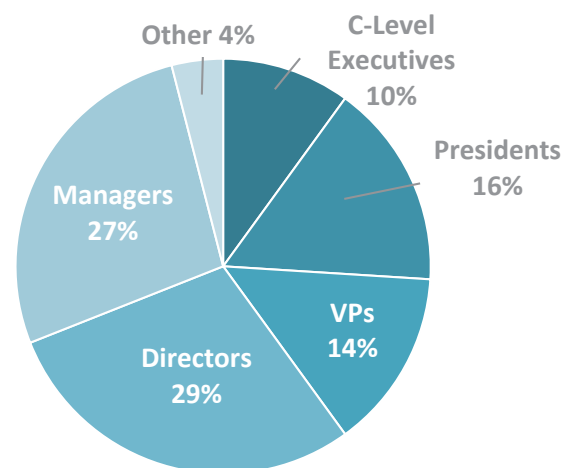

Additional topics covered at the Business and General Aviation Conference include aircraft programs and their production cycles, market forecasts and delivery updates.

Average number of delegates

100-120

Audience Profile

Organization Profile

Manufacturers	59%
Consultants	14%
Finance	9%
Industry Organizations	6%
Distributors	4%
Repair & Overhaul	3%
Other	5%

Delegates

95% North America

3% Europe

1% Asia-Pacific

1% South America

